About Universal Health Services

Founded in 1979 by our current Chairman and CEO Alan B. Miller, Universal Health Services, Inc. (NYSE: UHS) is one of the largest and most respected hospital management companies in the nation. A pioneer and leader in our industry, UHS attributes our longevity and success to our unwavering commitment to putting patients first in all the communities we are proud to call home.

UHS and our affiliates provide high quality, compassionate care across 320+ acute care hospitals, behavioral health and residential treatment facilities and outpatient care centers across the U.S., Puerto Rico and the United Kingdom. UHS strives to be the provider and employer of choice in every community we call home and we are committed to continually enhancing our programs and service offerings. To this end, UHS invests hundreds of millions annually (and well over $1 billion in the past three years) in facility and technology upgrades to drive innovation, improve safety and optimize the patient experience. We are also proud to provide millions in uncompensated and charity care annually.

UHS Clinical Quality Reputation, Accomplishments and Awards:

We have a longstanding, independently validated and evidence-based record of providing quality healthcare services to patients and their families:

- All UHS hospitals are fully accredited by independent organizations including The Joint Commission (TJC), whose rigorous clinical assessment protocols are widely respected throughout the healthcare industry.
- In the past 3 years, UHS Behavioral Health (BH) facilities underwent 300+ Joint Commission (TJC) surveys with a 100% success rate for re-accreditation. In the 40-year history of UHS, no facility has failed to be accredited or re-accredited by TJC or any other CMS-deemed organization.
- Between 2012 and 2015, 83 total UHS facilities (including 69 in our Behavioral Health Division) were designated Top Performers in Key Quality Measures[®] by TJC. TJC bestowed this award to hospitals that “attain excellence on accountability measure performance” and adherence to evidence-based clinical processes associated with improved outcomes during the 4-year existence of the program.
- All UHS BH hospitals participate in CMS’ Inpatient Psychiatric Facility Quality Reporting Program (IPFQR) used by over 1,600 BH hospitals across the U.S. to measure a broad set of evidence-based clinical practices linked to positive patient outcomes. UHS BH hospitals’ aggregated results routinely exceed national and state averages and the scores of its major BH multi-facility competitors.
- UHS Behavioral Health patients consistently report high levels of satisfaction with the care they receive at our facilities. In the past 3 years (January 2015 – December 2017) over 950,000 patients completed anonymous satisfaction surveys, a nearly 70% return rate. On a five-point scale UHS patients rated their overall satisfaction at 4.5¹, with 92% indicating that they felt better after care.
- UHS Acute Care facilities have likewise been recognized for numerous awards and recognitions related to quality care and specialty treatment offerings from respected organizations including Leapfrog and The Joint Commission.

Business and Financial Stewardship Recognition:

UHS is respected for its financial stewardship and business success in the healthcare industry. The company has built an impressive record of achievement and performance, growing from a startup into a Fortune 500 corporation (ranked #276 in 2017) with annual revenues of nearly $10 billion. UHS has been recognized with awards and esteemed rankings, including:

- Fortune Magazine Worlds’ Most Admired Companies for 8 Years in a Row
- Fortune 500 list (#268 in 2018)
- Forbes Magazine’s inaugural America’s Top 500 Public Companies (#275 in 2017)
- Business Insider / Payscale 30 Most Meaningful Companies to Work for in America, based on the overwhelming number of our employees rating their work as having “high job meaning.”
- Alan B. Miller has been named to the Modern Healthcare ‘100 Most Influential People in Healthcare’ for 16 consecutive years.
